

Micheal L. Wright - Attorney

Ms. Wright is a civil litigator who is experienced in representing both Plaintiffs and Defendants in a wide variety of matters, including contractual disputes, tortious claims, and employment matters. Ms. Wright gained experience as a judicial extern to federal judges Anthony J. Battaglia and Andrew G. Schopler during law school. Ms. Wright obtained her Juris Doctor in 2022 from California Western School of Law. She graduated cum laude and received numerous academic scholarships.

In her spare time, Micheal served as an honors teaching fellow, where she mentored first-year law students. She also worked as a research assistant for two California Western professors. Micheal was an associate writer for the California Western Law Review. Upon concluding law school, Micheal received the CWSL Faculty Award for her positive contributions to the school. Prior to law school, Micheal owned and operated a local San Diego restaurant.

Affiliations

- California State Bar
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of California
- Association of Business Trial Lawyers
- California Lawyers Association
- Lawyers Club of San Diego

Education

- B.S., University of South Carolina(2007)
- J.D., California Western School of Law (2022)