

CAITLIN E. MACKER, Attorney

Ms. Macker is a civil litigator who is experienced in representing both Plaintiffs and Defendants in a wide variety of matters, including business torts, labor and employment, intellectual property, contract disputes, defamation, and privacy claims. Ms. Macker gained experience representing public entities, such as the County of Los Angeles, and various professionals in civil rights and negligence actions. Ms. Macker also represented design professionals in construction and real property disputes. Ms. Macker now focuses on representation of local businesses, including project owners, restaurants, breweries, and corporations in litigation ranging from contract to tort to employment disputes.

Ms. Macker spends her free time organizing national intermural tournaments for aspiring trial attorneys. Caitlin is an avid animal lover who is often seen with Lady, her Great Pyrenees, at mock trial tournaments and around the San Diego community.
